

National Storytelling Week 2023

We celebrated stories in every form during National Storytelling Week
January 30 to February 6.

Year 1 to Year 6 joined a live online storytelling workshop organised by the National Literacy Trust. The storyteller, Wendy Shearer, told us a story from her cultural heritage and shared some tips on how to be a fantastic storyteller.

Our teachers read their favourite stories to us during the week.
Did you have a favourite one?

Ms Morison read the short story A Jar of Marbles from the anthology, A Harp of Fishbones by Joan Aiken.

Mrs Archer read Chapter 1 from the Allan Ahlberg classic, Ten In A Bed.

Mrs Warren read her children's favourite story (they're grown up now!) Farmer Duck by Martin Waddell.

Miss McLaughlin read an all time favourite We're Going On a Bear Hunt by national treasure, Michael Rosen.

Miss Loynes read Noah's Rocket by Tony Frai. Tony lives in Leeds.
